

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday March 27, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

MDOC gets 'ghost inmates'

MDOT budget finally gets OK

Cuts in higher education reduced

Egg producer outlook turns sunny-side up

State's bases may face big push to close

Group of ministers gathers in support of current flag

Jurisdiction of pollution suit disputed

Land turned over for Nissan

Grants for storm shelters available

Metro medical centers intensify cancer fight

Rural transit demand outpaces funding

Governors oppose river flow plan

Law adds to qualifications for wardens

Calif. faces huge power rate hike

Editorials

Natchez grant to preserve history

Long judge terms limit voters' rights

'Majesty of Spain' tops past exhibits

Kings Point levee funds not justified

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Ministers hold rally to support 1894 flag

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Teaching the technology of trees -- Community college major prepares students for jobs in 'growth' industry

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Legislature approves bond package

Mid-South Commentary

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Opera Fest organizers sing praises for bill

As Legislature nears end, focus on local and private laws

Read Our View--Group wrong to use religion to lobby for flag

Two new school bills share ironic twist

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Out of the mud: Rural roads could get new attention

County officials strongly supportive

Morgan Freeman: A Mississippi institution

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Moody trial gets under way

Play puts William Carey College on the map
Rail purchase hits deadline in Senate
Traffic lights cut energy costs by 40 percent
Oil leak cleanup to be completed by Wednesday
Flag part of our history, not future

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

12-year-old dies in 4-wheel crash
Musgrove signs 'In God We Trust' bill
Editorial for Monday, March 26
Charley Reese: Americans are addicted to energy
Letter to the editor for Monday, March 26, 2001

stateline.org

Mississippi Bill Includes Some Funding For Ayers
Mississippi Flag Dealer Ready For April 17 Vote
Mississippi Stats Show Flat Growth In Rural Communities